Mr. Robert D. Book,
Sewickley,
Pennsylvania.

Dear Mr. Book:-

Your letter of the 9th has just come to hand. Your medal and the one to Mr. Beebe was packed at the same time, and through a little mixing up of packages the wrong labels put on. I regret that this has been the case, and am enclosing a label addressed to Mr. Beebe with the necessary postage to cover, and would be very much obliged to you if you would send the medal on to Mr. Beebe. I have written Mr. Beebe to send your medal to you, and trust you will receive it before many days.

Regretting the inconvenience you have been put to,
I am,

Yours very truly,

Curator.
